Commitment to Quality of Business

I understand that ING has made certain assumptions pertaining to the quality of business that is submitted to the insurance company for underwriting. These assumptions, including but not limited to the ratio of submitted applications to the placed applications, all factor in to the company's ability to price products. It is my role as a field underwriter to make sure that applicants submitted to the company are pre-qualified and that I place at least 70% of the applicants that are submitted to the company. I understand that failure to maintain a 70% placement ratio may result in the termination of my appointment with the company.

G. PRODUCER ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING (AML) TRAINING REQUIREMENT

The Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN), a bureau of the U.S. Department of Treasury, enacted regulations surrounding the anti-money laundering (AML) programs for insurance companies, which took effect May 2, 2006. The Company requires that all producers selling or servicing specified products complete AML training and certify with ING at the time of contracting. In addition, under these regulations, ING requires that all agents selling specified products recertify their AML training biennially based on the date the last certification was completed.

Producers meeting the following are recognized as having completed their required AML obligations without further documentation:

- Currently have an active variable annuity or variable life contract with ING.
- Currently affiliated (commissions paying to) with a wirehouse when soliciting/servicing life insurance policies offered by ING
- Currently affiliated with a broker/dealer or bank, or with an agency of a broker/dealer or bank, whose ING selling agreement covers all associated agents under a blanket AML certification. Please check with your broker-dealer or bank compliance office. You may also call ING at 877-882-5050 to speak with an ING Licensing Representative.
- Completed the AML course using LIMRA as the training service (aml.limra.com)

If you have not met one of the above qualifications, you will be required to certify your AML training completion by:

- Submitting an AML training certificate of completion sponsored by an ACLI or FINRA recognized organization.
- Submitting an AML training certificate of completion sponsored by an ING approved training organization (list available by calling your ING Licensing Representative).
- Completing the AML course using LIMRA as the training service (aml.limra.com).
- Completing the ING AML Training Certificate of Completion (Form #137305).

Failure to certify your AML training may lead to delays in new business issuance. Failure to re-certify your AML training may lead to delays in new business issuance beyond the AML training expiration date. Note: Term Life policy issuance, with the exception of term products with Return of Premium product features, will not encounter delays due to AML training certification requirements.

D. Debit Balance

1. Producer agrees to pay the Debit Balance of Producer owed to any Company when due.
2. If any Debit Balance is not paid when due, the amount will bear interest at the rate posted on the Producer/Distributor Web site, but in no event in excess of that permitted by applicable law.
3. Producer grants to any Company a first lien on and the right to apply any amount due to Producer from any Company and any ING Affiliate Company to offset Producer's Debit Balance with any Company or any ING Affiliate Company.
4. Any Debit Balance of any Producer survives termination of this Agreement.

E. Modifications to Existing Compensation Schedules. Notwithstanding any language in this Agreement or any prior Agreement between the parties, including but not limited to, current or prior Compensation Schedules:

1. For Contracts on which the First Commissionable Event took place before January 1, 2006, on which there is an underwritten face increase occurring on or after January 1, 2006:
  - a. If a Contract:

- i. Is on a policy form available for sale on or after January 1, 2006, or
    - ii. For ReliaStar Life Insurance Company Contracts only (including those formerly known as Security-Connecticut Life Insurance Company), is on a policy form that is no longer available for sale on or after January 1, 2006, compensation on the underwritten face increase will be paid to Producer at the rates provided in the applicable Producer's Compensation Schedule in effect on the effective date of the underwritten face increase; and
  - b. For Southland Life Insurance Company Contracts only, the compensation will be the same as that set forth in the Producer's Compensation Schedule applicable to the Contract in effect on December 31, 2005.
2. For Contracts on which the First Commissionable Event took place before January 1, 2004 on which there is an automatic cost of living face increase occurring on or after January 1, 2006, compensation will be paid at the rates specified and to the appropriate Producer as stated in the COLA Procedures set forth on the Producer/Distributor Web site.
  3. No compensation will be paid to Producer until the amount of compensation due exceeds a minimum amount. This minimum amount may vary from issuing Company to issuing Company, and may be amended from time to time. These amounts are published on the Producer/Distributor Web site.
  4. If the total payment due from any of the individual Companies during any calendar year following termination of this Agreement is less than $10,000, then such Company may elect to pay the present value of the remaining compensation in one lump sum. The present value will be calculated based on an interest rate of 8% and the Linton B Persistency Table that in the Company's sole discretion reflects the expected persistency of the business. After such lump sum payment, the individual Company will be relieved of any further obligation under this Agreement for payment of compensation.

Producer agrees to defend any Company, at Producer's cost, in any arbitration, litigation, regulatory action or other proceeding covered by this indemnification clause, and not covered by the mandatory arbitration clause in this Agreement.

VII. Investigations, Complaints and Litigation

- A. Producer agrees to cooperate fully in any investigation, complaint, claim, proceeding, arbitration or litigation arising in connection with any Contract solicited or sold under this Agreement.

- C. Producer will also promptly notify Company of any significant regulatory investigation or litigation involving Producer of which Producer has knowledge, even though it may not directly or indirectly involve a Contract.
- D. In its sole discretion, Company may settle any claim of an applicant, Contract owner or other person or entity concerning any conduct, act or omission of Producer. Producer agrees to reimburse Company for the costs of such settlement.

VIII. Customer Information. The parties desire to protect Customer Information, as defined below, and to comply as may be necessary with requirements of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act and all relevant state and federal regulations and state privacy laws (all referred to as "Privacy Law").

- A. "Customer Information" means an applicant's Application for a Contract or service and all non-public personal information about a customer that a party receives from another party. "Customer Information" includes, by way of example and not limitation, name, address, telephone number, social security number, health information and personal financial information (which may include consumer account number).
- B. The parties understand and acknowledge that they may be financial institutions subject to Privacy Law, and all Customer Information that one party receives from another party is received with limitations on its use and disclosure. The parties agree that they are prohibited from using the Customer Information received from another party other than:

  - 3. They will use such information only as permitted by Privacy Law.
- D. Subject to the provisions of subparagraph B above, the parties will not disclose the Customer Information to any other person without prior written permission from the other parties.
- E. The parties will establish and maintain safeguards against the unauthorized access, destruction, loss, or alteration of Customer Information in their control that are no less rigorous than those maintained by a party for its own information of a similar nature. In the event of any improper disclosure of any Customer Information, the party responsible for the disclosure will immediately notify the other parties.

ING Companies Application for Appointment and Contract, which are incorporated by reference, constitute the entire agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes in its entirety all prior agreements, understandings, negotiations and other written or oral communications between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

2. The parties specifically agree that any prior general agent, agent or producer agreements, however titled, between Producer and any Company are terminated effective December 31, 2003.
- B. Amendment of Agreement. Company may amend any part of this Agreement, specifically including but not limited to, any Compensation Schedules (for prospectively issued Contracts only) by giving Notice to Producer. No oral promises or representations will be binding. Submission of an application for a Contract by Producer on or after the effective date of any such amendment will constitute Producer's agreement to the amendment.
- C. Non-Assignability. Producer may not assign this Agreement or any rights or obligations under this Agreement without Company's prior written consent.
- D. Arbitration.
  1. Any dispute between a Company and Producer will be settled by arbitration. Without limiting the foregoing this will include, but not be limited to, any dispute or disagreement arising out of, or relating to, the formation, interpretation, performance, or breach of this Agreement, whether such dispute arises before or after termination of this Agreement, and whether in contract or tort or otherwise.
  2. To initiate arbitration, either the Company or Producer will send Notice to the other party in writing of its desire to arbitrate. The Notice will identify the claimant, the contract at issue and the nature of the claims and/or issues. Notice of arbitration must be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested. The arbitration will be deemed to be commenced on the date the Notice of arbitration is received.
  3. The arbitration will be conducted in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") and its Expedited Procedures with the exception of the following: There will be three arbitrators who will each have no less than five years of experience in life insurance and who are current or former officers of life insurance companies other than the parties to this Agreement. Within thirty (30) days following the commencement of arbitration proceedings, each party will provide the other party with identification and a copy of the curriculum vitae of their appointed arbitrator. The two party-appointed arbitrators will appoint a third arbitrator who will serve as the umpire. If they do not do so within thirty (30) days, the AAA will appoint the umpire.
  4. The arbitration will take place in Atlanta, Georgia, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties. The award rendered by the arbitrators will be final and binding upon the parties, except that the parties retain all rights to challenge an award under the Federal Arbitration Act, and judgment upon the award may be entered in any court with jurisdiction.
  5. Unless the arbitrators decide otherwise, each party will bear the expense of its own arbitration activities, including its appointed arbitrator and any outside attorney and witness fees. The parties will jointly and equally bear the expenses of the umpire and other costs of the arbitration.
  6. The parties agree that under no circumstances will any party be liable to any other party for lost profits, or any special, indirect, consequential, treble, multiple or punitive damages of any kind, whether or not foreseeable, incurred by any other party in connection with this Agreement.
- E. Governing Law and Venue. This Agreement will be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Georgia. The parties agree that the federal courts located in, and the state courts of, Fulton County, Georgia, will have jurisdiction and be the appropriate venue for any required judicial interpretation and enforcement of this Agreement.
- F. Binding Effect. This Agreement will be binding on and will inure to the benefit of the parties to it and their respective successors in interest. Should any portion of this Agreement be determined to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, such invalidity or unenforceability shall be deemed, to the maximum extent possible, not to affect the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement.
- G. Waiver. Failure of any party to insist upon strict compliance with any condition of this Agreement will not be construed as a waiver of any such condition.
- H. Term of Agreement. This Agreement will continue indefinitely, until terminated by either party pursuant to the provisions in this Agreement.
- I. Authority. Each party represents that the person signing this Agreement on its behalf has the authority and capacity to bind the party.
- J. Execution. The parties' agreement to be bound by this Agreement may be evidenced by any one of the following

A SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) is designed to promote accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of every "consumer reporting agency" (CRA). Most CRAs are credit bureaus that gather and sell information about you — such as if you pay your bills on time or have filed bankruptcy — to creditors, employers, landlords, and other businesses. You can find the complete text of the FCRA, 15 U.S.C. 1681-1681u, at the Federal Trade Commission's web site (<http://www.ftc.gov>). The FCRA gives you specific rights, as outlined below. You may have additional rights under state law. You may contact a state or local consumer protection agency or a state attorney general to learn those rights.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses information from a CRA to take action against you — such as denying an application for credit, insurance, or employment — must tell you, and give you the name, address, and phone number of the CRA that provided the consumer report.
- You can find out what is in your file. At your request, a CRA must give you the information in your file, and a list of everyone who has requested it recently. There is no charge for the report if a person has taken action against you because of information supplied by the CRA, if you request the report within 60 days of receiving notice of the action. You also are entitled to one free report every twelve months upon request if you certify that (1) you are unemployed and plan to seek employment within 60 days, (2) you are on welfare, or (3) your report is inaccurate due to fraud. Otherwise, a CRA may charge you up to eight dollars.
- You can dispute inaccurate information with the CRA. If you tell a CRA that your file contains inaccurate information, the CRA must investigate the items (usually within 30 days) by presenting to its information source all relevant evidence you submit, unless your dispute is frivolous. The source must review your evidence and report its findings to the CRA. (The source also must advise national CRAs — to which it has provided the data — of any error.) The CRA must give you a written report of the investigation, and a copy of your report if the investigation results in any change. If the CRA's investigation does not resolve the dispute, you may add a brief statement to your file. The CRA must normally include a summary of your statement in future reports. If an item is deleted or a dispute statement is filed, you may ask that anyone who has recently received your report be notified of the change.
- Inaccurate information must be corrected or deleted. A CRA must remove or correct inaccurate or unverified information from its files, usually within 30 days after you dispute it. However, the CRA is not required to remove accurate data from your file unless it is outdated (as described below) or cannot be verified. If your dispute results in any change to your report, the CRA cannot reinsert into your file a disputed item unless the information source verifies its accuracy and completeness. In addition, the CRA must give you a written notice telling you it has reinserted the item. The notice must include the name, address and phone number of the information source.
- You can dispute inaccurate items with the source of the information. If you tell anyone — such as a creditor who reports to a CRA — that you dispute an item, they may not then report the information to a CRA without including a notice of your dispute. In addition, once you've notified the source of the error in writing, it may not continue to report the information if it is, in fact, an error.
- Outdated information may not be reported. In most cases, a CRA may not report negative information that is more than seven years old; ten years for bankruptcies.
- Access to your file is limited. A CRA may provide information about you only to people with a need recognized by the FCRA — usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business.
- Your consent is required for reports that are provided to employers, or reports that contain medical information. A CRA may not give out information about you to your employer, or prospective employer, without your written consent. A CRA may not report medical information about you to creditors, insurers, or employers without your permission.
- You may choose to exclude your name from CRA lists for unsolicited credit and insurance offers. Creditors and insurers may use file information as the basis for sending you unsolicited offers of credit or insurance. Such offers must include a toll-free phone number for you to call if you want your name and address removed from future lists. If you call, you must be kept off the lists for two years. If you request, complete, and return the CRA form provided for this purpose, you must be taken off the lists indefinitely.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a CRA, a user or (in some cases) a provider of CRA data, violates the FCRA, you may sue them in state or federal court.

The FCRA gives several different federal agencies authority to enforce the FCRA:
