Investment Advice given by you, as an independent producer will not extend to us or obligate us to any standards created by your investment advice. You may not apply as an owner of any insurance contract on the life of a prospective customer, nor list yourself as beneficiary of any such contract, unless you have a legitimate insurable interest in the life of the proposed insured as determined by appropriate law and by us. You may not make any representations, promises or warranties regarding product benefits or values not specifically stated in the insurance contract. This includes any statements that current contract interest rates, or any contract values based on current interest rates, are guaranteed. This also includes any statements regarding the future projected values of any insurance product. You agree to notify us upon receipt of any customer complaint you or any of your sub-producers receive concerning you or any of your sub-producers, or us or any of our products in accordance with any complaint handling policy, procedure or guideline as we may publish from time to time. You also agree to give your full and complete cooperation in responding to any customer complaint or inquiry and will promptly respond, in writing, if and when we so request. You may not give any legal, investment or tax advice on our behalf.

2. Independent Contractor

You are an independent contractor. Nothing contained in this Contract may be construed to create an employer-employee relationship between you and us. You are free to exercise independent judgment as to the time, place and manner you may perform the acts you are authorized to perform under this contract; but from time to time we may set forth certain provisions in the Guide with respect to the conduct of business by which you must abide. You have no authority, express or implied, to act in any manner or by any means for or on behalf of us in any capacity other than that of an independent contractor, and you have no authority to act in any manner except as herein expressly set forth. No authority may be implied from the authority expressly granted herein. All applications for insurance contracts must be acceptable to us in our sole discretion and our right of acceptance or rejection is absolute and unrestricted. You are solely responsible for payment of any and all taxes, including federal and state income, FICA and Medicare taxes, on Compensation (defined below) or other benefits paid or furnished to you by us.

3. Authority over Producers

You have authority to recruit and recommend to us individuals to be appointed as our producers. No recommendation or application for appointment or contract will be effective until approved by us at our home office. You may designate producers on whose production you are to receive Compensation from us, in a form that is acceptable to us. You are responsible for the activities of any such producers on whose production you are entitled to receive and/or have received Compensation from us (referred to as “your producers”). - i. Audit the sales and marketing business practices of you or any of your producers, which may include onsite audits.

5. License

Subject to rules we may establish from time to time, we may pay license appointment fees required by the state in which you have your principal place of business.

You have the authority to collect the first premium only and shall promptly remit that premium to us. We do not accept premium payments collected in the form of cash, money order, traveler's checks, third-party checks or "blank" (counter) checks. You may not commingle contract owner premiums with your personal funds or with your Organization funds, and premium payments may not be remitted from personal or Organization accounts (except on policies you personally own or except as specifically otherwise agreed in advance in writing). All monies received by you for or on behalf of us must be made payable to us, and you are not authorized to endorse or cash checks, drafts, money orders or financial instruments made payable to us. With respect to an application for a life insurance contract, if you collect an initial premium payment at the time of application you are to provide a completed Conditional Receipt Agreement to the customer with a copy to us along with the premium payment.

8. Delivery of Policies

Insurance contracts must be delivered promptly and those not delivered within our required, published delivery period must be returned to us promptly.

9. Return of Premiums/Chargebacks

We may reject, decline, cancel, or modify applications for insurance contracts for any reason and at our sole discretion, and we may return the premium or any portion thereof to the customer. You are not entitled to Compensation with respect to any such insurance contract, and any such Compensation paid to you will become an indebtedness of you to us. Furthermore, you are not entitled to any Compensation with respect to any contracts or applications that are rejected, rescinded, declined, not taken, cancelled by us for any reason or on premiums returned to the owner at any time before or after issue of the contract for any reason and you will immediately refund to us any such Compensation upon our written demand.

10. Other Company Policies, Procedures and Guidelines

You are responsible for reviewing, understanding and complying with the Guide. You acknowledge and agree to review these policies, procedures and guidelines upon confirmation of your appointment with us and to review them periodically throughout the term of your appointment. You acknowledge and agree to receive and review all applicable product, legal and compliance communications. You will abide by, and will ensure that all of your sub-producers abide by, the Guide and the requirements of federal and state laws and regulations. You acknowledge and agree that the Guide may be revised by us at any time and from time to time, in our sole discretion and without prior notice to you.

You are required to maintain Errors and Omissions (E & O) insurance coverage at all times with policy limits of at least $1,000,000 per claim/$1,000,000 annual aggregate, or such other limits as we may require from time to time. You must provide us with satisfactory evidence of such E & O coverage as we may reasonably request from time to time, but at a minimum annually. You must provide us with notification within ten (10) days of any cancellation, change of policy provisions or carrier, or other termination of such E & O coverage. Failure to maintain said E & O coverage may result in your suspension or termination of your contract. For New York Producers only, all records will be maintained in accordance with New York Insurance Regulation 152.

11. Privacy of Customer Information

We may from time to time provide you with certain non-public personal and protected health information (“Customer Information”) for the purpose of performing services for us or functions on our behalf. You are expressly prohibited from disclosing or using Customer Information for any purpose other than to carry out your obligations under this Contract or as specifically authorized by the Company. Specifically, you shall: (i) keep all Customer Information strictly confidential; (ii) comply with all federal and state requirements regarding the protection and disclosure of Customer Information; (iii) maintain adequate privacy systems and safeguards to protect the confidentiality of Customer Information; and (iv) immediately report to us any use or disclosure of Customer Information not permitted by this Contract.

Reports of any use or disclosure of Customer Information not permitted by this Contract must be in writing and include, at minimum: (i) the nature of unauthorized use or disclosure; (ii) the Customer Information involved in the unauthorized use or disclosure; (iii) who made the unauthorized use or disclosure; (iv) what you have done or are doing to mitigate any deleterious effect of the unauthorized use or disclosure; (v) what corrective action you have taken to prevent future similar unauthorized use or disclosure; and (vi) any other information requested by us.

You shall require all of your employees, representatives or producers and third party service providers that receive or have access to Customer Information to agree to adhere to these same restrictions and conditions. In the event you receive information, including Customer Information, from us that you are not authorized to receive, you agree to notify us of such receipt, cease and desist any use of such information, and destroy it immediately.

12. Contract Non-Assignable

Any assignment or pledge of your commissions under this Contract must have our prior written consent, and is subject to applicable state insurance laws and regulations and our prior security interest and right of set-off. All other rights under this Contract are personal to you and may not be transferred or assigned by you without our prior written consent.

13. Compensation

Commissions, trails and bonuses, if any, (“Compensation”) will be paid in accordance with the commission schedule provided to you, as modified from time to time, for production by you or your producers. Amounts payable to you on sales by your producers will be reduced by the amount payable to such producer(s), so that in any event you will receive only the override on such sales. You must obtain your commission statements and production reports by accessing our producer extranet website. If commissions are payable to you by an upline producer under a “zero comp” or “license only” arrangement, you agree that we have no obligation to pay any compensation directly to you and you agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from all losses and expenses, including attorneys fees, resulting from any claim by you for such compensation, notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary.

We reserve the right to revise the commission or trail rate levels set forth in the commission schedule at any time and from time to time, at our sole discretion. We may also amend from time to time the terms and conditions for payment of Compensation as set forth on any commission schedule or supplement. We will give you notice of any such revision or amendment (including notice on our producer extranet). No such revision or amendment will reduce the commissions or trails payable to you on business sold by you or your producers prior to the effective date of the revision or amendment. To the extent you are required by any state or federal law to disclose to a consumer your compensation earned, you will abide by any and all such requirements in a timely manner.

You shall not discount or offer to discount premiums and you shall not engage or offer to engage in the direct or indirect rebating of compensation that is paid or payable in connection with the sale or purchase of our insurance products whether or not permitted under applicable state law.

14. Indemnity and Indebtedness/Right of Set-Off

You agree to indemnify and hold us harmless for any losses, claims, liabilities, lawsuits, costs or expenses we incur (including attorneys’ fees and costs) as a result of any acts or omissions by you, your employees or your producers. This indemnity and hold harmless will extend to any debt to us that you, your employees or your producers incur (including the costs of collection and attorneys fees). You agree to pay any debit balance owed by you to us when due, and any debit balance(s) of your producers remaining after completion of any debt collection we may undertake.

You grant to us a first priority security interest in all compensation payable to you by us and any of our affiliated insurance companies to the extent of any indebtedness or other obligation you or your producers owe to us, and we will have the right of set-off against any such compensation or any other monies payable or owed to you. Any amount not fully paid within thirty (30) days of demand will bear interest at the rate of 5.25% per year, as amended from time to time upon notice to you by us. This right of set-off will also apply to any compensation payable to you after termination of this contract.

15. Termination

This Contract may be terminated with or without cause by either you or us immediately upon written notice to the last known address of the other party. This Contract is terminated automatically without cause upon your death if it is an individually signed (natural person) contract or, if you are a partnership, LLP, LLC or corporation, upon any event legally or contractually causing the dissolution of that organization. We may terminate this Contract "for cause" immediately upon written notice sent to your last known address. "For cause" shall include the following:

- a) you withhold, embezzle or misappropriate any money or other property belonging to us, to a contract owner or to an insured;

- f) you fail to pay any indebtedness to us upon demand;
- g) you are, or have ever been, convicted of or plead guilty or nolo contendere ("no contest") to any felony or to any crime involving dishonesty or breach of trust;
- h) you are, or become, not a duly licensed insurance producer;
- i) you engage directly or indirectly in any rebating in connection with the purchase of our insurance contracts; or
- j) you engage in any effort to systematically replace the policies or contracts written with us by you or your producers.

Upon termination for cause or, if the Contract is with a non-natural person, upon dissolution or bankruptcy of the organization no further Compensation will be payable hereunder. Except as otherwise provided, commissions and trails will be fully vested as premiums are applied. Upon termination with or without cause, no further bonus payments of any kind, if any, will be payable, and no other benefits, such as convention qualification or attendance, will be available, regardless of when earned. Supplies and all other property and materials, including marketing materials and company business cards, furnished by us must be returned to us within ten (10) days.

Following termination with or without cause, we may withhold any Compensation or other monies payable to you for a period not to exceed 365 days. If, after termination of this Contract, the amount of Compensation becoming payable to you over any consecutive six month period is less than $50.00, all future Compensation payable to you will be forfeited and no further Compensation will be payable to you under this Contract.

The provisions of Paragraphs 9, 11, 14, 17 and 18 shall survive the termination of this Contract for any reason.

16. Suspension

We retain the right, with or without prior notice, to place you and/or any of your sub-producers on suspension and/or suspend the processing of any submitted insurance or annuity applications as a result of (i) any suspected or alleged misconduct; (ii) any violation, breach, suspected violation or suspected breach of any provision hereof; or (iii) any complaint issued or disciplinary action taken, by any state or federal insurance Organization or department, the Financial Industry Regulatory Organization, or any other governmental or quasi-governmental organization. During the period of suspension, suspended producers may not take any action to solicit or procure applications for our products, directly or through producers, brokers or employees. Furthermore, during the period of suspension, suspended producers will not be entitled to qualify for any reward, incentive or other promotional programs including, but not limited to, conference credits, previously awarded to them or awarded during the period of suspension. The period of suspension will continue for such period as we may deem appropriate for the investigation of such violation or suspected violation. We reserve the right to terminate you or any of your sub-producers at any time during the period of suspension and the duration of the suspension will count towards any requirement that you or your sub-producer receive notice of termination, including the notice requirements set forth in Section 15 above.

17. Arbitration

You and we agree that any disputes arising out of or relating to this Contract will be arbitrated in accordance with the Rules of the American Arbitration Association and the Federal Arbitration Act. Arbitration may not be initiated unless the party requesting arbitration has given the other party at least 30 days prior written notice of its intent to initiate arbitration and a detailed description of the basis of the dispute. A single arbitrator (or, in any matter in which the amount in controversy exceeds $100,000, a panel of three arbitrators) shall interpret this Contract in accordance with Iowa law and shall conduct proceedings in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Any punitive damages awarded by the arbitrator(s) shall not exceed two times compensatory damages awarded. Any award of the arbitrator(s) shall be deemed final and judgment upon such award may be entered and enforced in any Iowa District Court and transferred to any other jurisdiction. Such arbitration will be held in Des Moines, Iowa.

18. Non Interference

As a condition of, and material inducement to the consideration set forth herein, you agree you will not, while this Contract is in force and for a period of two (2) years following termination of this Contract, directly, indirectly, or through others, induce or urge any contract owner to lapse, exchange, surrender or otherwise terminate any contract, or induce or urge any employee or member of our field force to terminate any relationship with us. In the event this provision is violated and without limitation of our other remedies, all your rights to Compensation under this Contract will immediately cease and you will be liable for any damages we suffer. You further agree that money damages for your breach of this provision will be inadequate and that we are also entitled to seek injunctive relief to prevent further breaches of this provision. We may seek that injunctive relief, coupled with any claim by us for damages, in any state or federal district court in Des Moines, Iowa, and you agree that those courts have personal jurisdiction over you for the purpose of such actions, which shall not be subject to the Arbitration provisions of this Contract.

19. Consent to Electronic Agreement & Notice

In the event that you enter into this Contract by electronic means through our producer extranet website, you hereby agree and consent that this Contract shall be legally binding upon you and your heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, successors and assigns. You hereby waive any and all defenses that this Contract was not in writing or properly executed as may be required by the Statute of Frauds or any other similar law, rule or regulation. You hereby agree that we fulfill our obligation to deliver to you any document, statement, notice, or other communication if sent via electronic delivery. Documents sent by electronic delivery will contain all the information as it appears in the printed hardcopy version as prepared and distributed by the originator, with the possible exception of graphic insertions such as photographs or logotypes. Electronic delivery may be in the form of an email, an electronic mail attachment, or in the form of an available download from our producer extranet website. You represent that you will download the relevant document promptly after receiving notice of its availability. Should you experience any difficulty opening a document electronically delivered by us, you will promptly advise us in order to allow us to make the required delivery by other means. Failure to advise us of such difficulty within forty-eight hours after delivery shall serve as an affirmation that you were able to receive and open said document.

20. Entire Agreement

Except for compensation payable with respect to business sold under any previous contract between you and us, this Contract supersedes any previous agreements between you and us. This Contract sets forth the entire agreement between you and us and may not be altered or modified except in a writing signed by you and our authorized officer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we reserve the right to amend this Contract at any time, effective on a prospective basis only. Such amendment will be effective at such time as we display new Contract provisions at our producer extranet website or when we notify you of such changes. Your continuation of the relationship created hereby will be deemed to be your acceptance of such changes. You may request the most current edition of this Contract by calling or writing us.

Except for our right to amend this Contract from time to time as stated above, for purposes of providing notices required or permitted by this Contract or waiving any right under this Contract, and notwithstanding any law recognizing electronic signatures or records, "a writing signed," "in writing" and words of similar meaning, shall mean only a writing in a tangible form bearing an actual "wet" signature in ink manually applied by the person authorized by the respective party.

No forbearance or neglect by us to enforce any term, condition, or provision of this Contract shall be construed as a waiver of any of our rights or privileges hereunder or affect our rights arising from any default or failure of performance by you. You agree that a declaration of invalidity or unenforceability of any particular provision or provisions of this Contract will not in any manner affect any other provision and that you will comply fully with all remaining provisions contained herein.

The provisions of any supplemental addendums, amendments or schedules attached hereto, including the Producer Contract Application signed by you and attached hereto, are incorporated in this Contract in their entirety by this reference, as if fully set forth herein.

This Contract shall be governed by the laws of the State of Iowa, without giving effect to Iowa's conflicts of law principles. The parties agree that the federal courts located in, and the state courts of, Polk County, Iowa, will have jurisdiction and be the appropriate venue for any required judicial interpretation and enforcement of this Contract. As it has been interpreted by the New York Department of Financial Services (DFS) New York's record retention regulation, 11 NYCRR Part 243.2, requires insurers to include a provision in their contracts to the effect that records will be maintained in accordance with New York Insurance Regulation 152. We will need to include this in our contract.

This Contract is executed below and is effective upon the approval of the attached Application for Contract and execution by us.

This Contract is made by and between the Producer named above (“you” and “your”) and Athene Annuity and Life Company or Athene Annuity & Life Assurance Company of New York (“we,” “our,” and “us”).

1. Appointment

We hereby appoint you to act as our independent producer, subject to the terms and conditions stated below, to procure applications for the insurance products described in the commission schedules from time to time provided to you. You are authorized to solicit only those insurance products where the products have been approved for sale by the respective state insurance authority and you have been properly licensed. You agree to comply with all applicable governmental statutes, regulations, rules, regulatory opinions, decisions and other laws in conducting insurance business, and with the rules, policies, guidelines and operating procedures set out in our “Guide to Doing Business with Athene Insurance Companies” that we publish from time to time on the producer extranet website (as updated from time to time referred to as the “Guide”). You agree to make reasonable efforts to determine the insurable needs and/or financial objectives of the customer based upon relevant information obtained from the customer and enter into transactions that assist the customer in meeting his/her/its insurable needs and/or financial objectives including, but not limited to, conducting an insurance suitability analysis as may be required by law or our practice. Under the Department of Labor Fiduciary Rule and relevant exemptions, Fiduciary Investment Advisers must act with the care, skill, prudence without regard to financial or other interests (Best Interest) of the investor. Investment Advice given by you, as an independent producer will not extend to us or obligate us to any standards created by your investment advice. You may not apply as an owner of any insurance contract on the life of a prospective customer, nor list yourself as beneficiary of any such contract, unless you have a legitimate insurable interest in the life of the proposed insured as determined by appropriate law and by us. You may not make any representations, promises or warranties regarding product benefits or values not specifically stated in the insurance contract. This includes any statements that current contract interest rates, or any contract values based on current interest rates, are guaranteed. This also includes any statements regarding the future projected values of any insurance product. You agree to notify us upon receipt of any customer complaint you or any of your sub-producers receive concerning you or any of your sub-producers, or us or any of our products in accordance with any complaint handling policy, procedure or guideline as we may publish from time to time. You also agree to give your full and complete cooperation in responding to any customer complaint or inquiry and will promptly respond, in writing, if and when we so request. You may not give any legal, investment or tax advice on our behalf.

2. Independent Contractor

You are an independent contractor. Nothing contained in this Contract may be construed to create an employer-employee relationship between you and us. You are free to exercise independent judgment as to the time, place and manner you may perform the acts you are authorized to perform under this contract; but from time to time we may set forth certain provisions in the Guide with respect to the conduct of business by which you must abide. You have no authority, express or implied, to act in any manner or by any means for or on behalf of us in any capacity other than that of an independent contractor, and you have no authority to act in any manner except as herein expressly set forth. No authority may be implied from the authority expressly granted herein. All applications for insurance contracts must be acceptable to us in our sole discretion and our right of acceptance or rejection is absolute and unrestricted. You are solely responsible for payment of any and all taxes, including federal and state income, FICA and Medicare taxes, on Compensation (defined below) or other benefits paid or furnished to you by us.

3. Authority over Producers

You have authority to recruit and recommend to us individuals to be appointed as our producers. No recommendation or application for appointment or contract will be effective until approved by us at our home office. You may designate producers on whose production you are to receive Compensation from us, in a form that is acceptable to us. You are responsible for the activities of any such producers on whose production you are entitled to receive and/or have received Compensation from us (referred to as “your producers”). You are responsible for providing proper and adequate supervision and training of your producers, and for such producers’ compliance with the terms and conditions of their contracts with us and with all applicable governmental statutes, regulations, rules, regulatory opinions, decisions and other laws in conducting insurance business, and with the Guide.

4. Company's Exclusive Authority

Only we have the authority to change any of the terms, rates or conditions of our contracts or policies. You, on your own behalf or on behalf of your producers, have no authority personally or on our behalf to make, modify or waive, any of the terms or conditions of any insurance contract; to bind us by making any promise or by accepting any representation or information not contained in an application for an insurance contract; or to incur any obligation or liability for which we shall be responsible. We may in our sole discretion:

- a. Modify or amend any insurance contract;
- b. Set maximum and minimum limits on the amount for which any insurance contract may be issued;
- c. Modify the conditions under which any insurance contract may be sold;
- d. Discontinue or withdraw any insurance contract from your state(s);
- e. Cease doing business in your state(s);
- f. Establish rules governing the Compensation to be paid on any insurance contract which has been reinstated, converted or has replaced an existing insurance contract;
- g. Determine the amount of Compensation to be paid on insurance contracts not enumerated herein;
- h. Make charges for rejected, undelivered or reissued insurance contracts;
- i. Audit the sales and marketing business practices of you or any of your producers, which may include onsite audits.

5. License

Subject to rules we may establish from time to time, we may pay license appointment fees required by the state in which you have your principal place of business.

6. Receiving Premiums

You have the authority to collect the first premium only and shall promptly remit that premium to us. We do not accept premium payments collected in the form of cash, money order, traveler's checks, third-party checks or "blank" (counter) checks. You may not commingle contract owner premiums with your personal funds or with your Organization funds, and premium payments may not be remitted from personal or Organization accounts (except on policies you personally own or except as specifically otherwise agreed in advance in writing). All monies received by you for or on behalf of us must be made payable to us, and you are not authorized to endorse or cash checks, drafts, money orders or financial instruments made payable to us. With respect to an application for a life insurance contract, if you collect an initial premium payment at the time of application you are to provide a completed Conditional Receipt Agreement to the customer with a copy to us along with the premium payment.

7. Advertising

You are responsible for knowing all laws, regulations and standards relating to the marketing and sale of insurance contracts in all states where you are licensed and/or conducting business.

Any sales promotion, sales material or other advertising material you use in connection with the solicitation and/or sale of our products must be submitted to us for our prior written approval of each specific item, pursuant to the Guide.

8. Delivery of Policies

Insurance contracts must be delivered promptly and those not delivered within our required, published delivery period must be returned to us promptly.

9. Return of Premiums/Chargebacks

We may reject, decline, cancel, or modify applications for insurance contracts for any reason and at our sole discretion, and we may return the premium or any portion thereof to the customer. You are not entitled to Compensation with respect to any such insurance contract, and any such Compensation paid to you will become an indebtedness of you to us. Furthermore, you are not entitled to any Compensation with respect to any contracts or applications that are rejected, rescinded, declined, not taken, cancelled by us for any reason or on premiums returned to the owner at any time before or after issue of the contract for any reason and you will immediately refund to us any such Compensation upon our written demand.

10. Other Company Policies, Procedures and Guidelines

You are responsible for reviewing, understanding and complying with the Guide. You acknowledge and agree to review these policies, procedures and guidelines upon confirmation of your appointment with us and to review them periodically throughout the term of your appointment. You acknowledge and agree to receive and review all applicable product, legal and compliance communications. You will abide by, and will ensure that all of your sub-producers abide by, the Guide and the requirements of federal and state laws and regulations. You acknowledge and agree that the Guide may be revised by us at any time and from time to time, in our sole discretion and without prior notice to you.

You are required to maintain Errors and Omissions (E & O) insurance coverage at all times with policy limits of at least $1,000,000 per claim/$1,000,000 annual aggregate, or such other limits as we may require from time to time. You must provide us with satisfactory evidence of such E & O coverage as we may reasonably request from time to time, but at a minimum annually. You must provide us with notification within ten (10) days of any cancellation, change of policy provisions or carrier, or other termination of such E & O coverage. Failure to maintain said E & O coverage may result in your suspension or termination of your contract. For New York Producers only, all records will be maintained in accordance with New York Insurance Regulation 152.

11. Privacy of Customer Information

We may from time to time provide you with certain non-public personal and protected health information (“Customer Information”) for the purpose of performing services for us or functions on our behalf. You are expressly prohibited from disclosing or using Customer Information for any purpose other than to carry out your obligations under this Contract or as specifically authorized by the Company. Specifically, you shall: (i) keep all Customer Information strictly confidential; (ii) comply with all federal and state requirements regarding the protection and disclosure of Customer Information; (iii) maintain adequate privacy systems and safeguards to protect the confidentiality of Customer Information; and (iv) immediately report to us any use or disclosure of Customer Information not permitted by this Contract.

Reports of any use or disclosure of Customer Information not permitted by this Contract must be in writing and include, at minimum: (i) the nature of unauthorized use or disclosure; (ii) the Customer Information involved in the unauthorized use or disclosure; (iii) who made the unauthorized use or disclosure; (iv) what you have done or are doing to mitigate any deleterious effect of the unauthorized use or disclosure; (v) what corrective action you have taken to prevent future similar unauthorized use or disclosure; and (vi) any other information requested by us.

You shall require all of your employees, representatives or producers and third party service providers that receive or have access to Customer Information to agree to adhere to these same restrictions and conditions. In the event you receive information, including Customer Information, from us that you are not authorized to receive, you agree to notify us of such receipt, cease and desist any use of such information, and destroy it immediately.

12. Contract Non-Assignable

Any assignment or pledge of your commissions under this Contract must have our prior written consent, and is subject to applicable state insurance laws and regulations and our prior security interest and right of set-off. All other rights under this Contract are personal to you and may not be transferred or assigned by you without our prior written consent.

13. Compensation

Commissions, trails and bonuses, if any, (“Compensation”) will be paid in accordance with the commission schedule provided to you, as modified from time to time, for production by you or your producers. Amounts payable to you on sales by your producers will be reduced by the amount payable to such producer(s), so that in any event you will receive only the override on such sales. You must obtain your commission statements and production reports by accessing our producer extranet website. If commissions are payable to you by an upline producer under a “zero comp” or “license only” arrangement, you agree that we have no obligation to pay any compensation directly to you and you agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from all losses and expenses, including attorneys fees, resulting from any claim by you for such compensation, notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary.

We reserve the right to revise the commission or trail rate levels set forth in the commission schedule at any time and from time to time, at our sole discretion. We may also amend from time to time the terms and conditions for payment of Compensation as set forth on any commission schedule or supplement. We will give you notice of any such revision or amendment (including notice on our producer extranet). No such revision or amendment will reduce the commissions or trails payable to you on business sold by you or your producers prior to the effective date of the revision or amendment. To the extent you are required by any state or federal law to disclose to a consumer your compensation earned, you will abide by any and all such requirements in a timely manner.

You shall not discount or offer to discount premiums and you shall not engage or offer to engage in the direct or indirect rebating of compensation that is paid or payable in connection with the sale or purchase of our insurance products whether or not permitted under applicable state law.

14. Indemnity and Indebtedness/Right of Set-Off

You agree to indemnify and hold us harmless for any losses, claims, liabilities, lawsuits, costs or expenses we incur (including attorneys’ fees and costs) as a result of any acts or omissions by you, your employees or your producers. This indemnity and hold harmless will extend to any debt to us that you, your employees or your producers incur (including the costs of collection and attorneys fees). You agree to pay any debit balance owed by you to us when due, and any debit balance(s) of your producers remaining after completion of any debt collection we may undertake.

You grant to us a first priority security interest in all compensation payable to you by us and any of our affiliated insurance companies to the extent of any indebtedness or other obligation you or your producers owe to us, and we will have the right of set-off against any such compensation or any other monies payable or owed to you. Any amount not fully paid within thirty (30) days of demand will bear interest at the rate of 5.25% per year, as amended from time to time upon notice to you by us. This right of set-off will also apply to any compensation payable to you after termination of this contract.

15. Termination

This Contract may be terminated with or without cause by either you or us immediately upon written notice to the last known address of the other party. This Contract is terminated automatically without cause upon your death if it is an individually signed (natural person) contract or, if you are a partnership, LLP, LLC or corporation, upon any event legally or contractually causing the dissolution of that organization. We may terminate this Contract “for cause” immediately upon written notice sent to your last known address. "For cause" shall include the following:

- a) you withhold, embezzle or misappropriate any money or other property belonging to us, to a contract owner or to an insured;
- b) you subject us to a liability;
- c) you fail to comply with the laws, rules or regulations of any federal, state or other governmental Organization or body having jurisdiction over you or us, or with the Guide;
- d) you commit a material breach of this Contract;
- e) you commit any fraud or material misrepresentation of fact including but not limited to misrepresentation of any fact on the Application for Contract;
- f) you fail to pay any indebtedness to us upon demand;
- g) you are, or have ever been, convicted of or plead guilty or nolo contendere ("no contest") to any felony or to any crime involving dishonesty or breach of trust;
- h) you are, or become, not a duly licensed insurance producer;
- i) you engage directly or indirectly in any rebating in connection with the purchase of our insurance contracts; or
- j) you engage in any effort to systematically replace the policies or contracts written with us by you or your producers.

Upon termination for cause or, if the Contract is with a non-natural person, upon dissolution or bankruptcy of the organization no further Compensation will be payable hereunder. Except as otherwise provided, commissions and trails will be fully vested as premiums are applied. Upon termination with or without cause, no further bonus payments of any kind, if any, will be payable, and no other benefits, such as convention qualification or attendance, will be available, regardless of when earned. Supplies and all other property and materials, including marketing materials and company business cards, furnished by us must be returned to us within ten (10) days.

Following termination with or without cause, we may withhold any Compensation or other monies payable to you for a period not to exceed 365 days. If, after termination of this Contract, the amount of Compensation becoming payable to you over any consecutive six month period is less than $50.00, all future Compensation payable to you will be forfeited and no further Compensation will be payable to you under this Contract.

The provisions of Paragraphs 9, 11, 14, 17 and 18 shall survive the termination of this Contract for any reason.

16. Suspension

We retain the right, with or without prior notice, to place you and/or any of your sub-producers on suspension and/or suspend the processing of any submitted insurance or annuity applications as a result of (i) any suspected or alleged misconduct; (ii) any violation, breach, suspected violation or suspected breach of any provision hereof; or (iii) any complaint issued or disciplinary action taken, by any state or federal insurance Organization or department, the Financial Industry Regulatory Organization, or any other governmental or quasi-governmental organization. During the period of suspension, suspended producers may not take any action to solicit or procure applications for our products, directly or through producers, brokers or employees. Furthermore, during the period of suspension, suspended producers will not be entitled to qualify for any reward, incentive or other promotional programs including, but not limited to, conference credits, previously awarded to them or awarded during the period of suspension. The period of suspension will continue for such period as we may deem appropriate for the investigation of such violation or suspected violation. We reserve the right to terminate you or any of your sub-producers at any time during the period of suspension and the duration of the suspension will count towards any requirement that you or your sub-producer receive notice of termination, including the notice requirements set forth in Section 15 above.

17. Arbitration

You and we agree that any disputes arising out of or relating to this Contract will be arbitrated in accordance with the Rules of the American Arbitration Association and the Federal Arbitration Act. Arbitration may not be initiated unless the party requesting arbitration has given the other party at least 30 days prior written notice of its intent to initiate arbitration and a detailed description of the basis of the dispute. A single arbitrator (or, in any matter in which the amount in controversy exceeds $100,000, a panel of three arbitrators) shall interpret this Contract in accordance with Iowa law and shall conduct proceedings in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Any punitive damages awarded by the arbitrator(s) shall not exceed two times compensatory damages awarded. Any award of the arbitrator(s) shall be deemed final and judgment upon such award may be entered and enforced in any Iowa District Court and transferred to any other jurisdiction. Such arbitration will be held in Des Moines, Iowa.

18. Non Interference

As a condition of, and material inducement to the consideration set forth herein, you agree you will not, while this Contract is in force and for a period of two (2) years following termination of this Contract, directly, indirectly, or through others, induce or urge any contract owner to lapse, exchange, surrender or otherwise terminate any contract, or induce or urge any employee or member of our field force to terminate any relationship with us. In the event this provision is violated and without limitation of our other remedies, all your rights to Compensation under this Contract will immediately cease and you will be liable for any damages we suffer. You further agree that money damages for your breach of this provision will be inadequate and that we are also entitled to seek injunctive relief to prevent further breaches of this provision. We may seek that injunctive relief, coupled with any claim by us for damages, in any state or federal district court in Des Moines, Iowa, and you agree that those courts have personal jurisdiction over you for the purpose of such actions, which shall not be subject to the Arbitration provisions of this Contract.

19. Consent to Electronic Agreement & Notice

In the event that you enter into this Contract by electronic means through our producer extranet website, you hereby agree and consent that this Contract shall be legally binding upon you and your heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, successors and assigns. You hereby waive any and all defenses that this Contract was not in writing or properly executed as may be required by the Statute of Frauds or any other similar law, rule or regulation. You hereby agree that we fulfill our obligation to deliver to you any document, statement, notice, or other communication if sent via electronic delivery. Documents sent by electronic delivery will contain all the information as it appears in the printed hardcopy version as prepared and distributed by the originator, with the possible exception of graphic insertions such as photographs or logos. Electronic delivery may be in the form of an email, an electronic mail attachment, or in the form of an available download from our producer extranet website. You represent that you will download the relevant document promptly after receiving notice of its availability. Should you experience any difficulty opening a document electronically delivered by us, you will promptly advise us in order to allow us to make the required delivery by other means. Failure to advise us of such difficulty within forty-eight hours after delivery shall serve as an affirmation that you were able to receive and open said document.

20. Entire Agreement

Except for compensation payable with respect to business sold under any previous contract between you and us, this Contract supersedes any previous agreements between you and us. This Contract sets forth the entire agreement between you and us and may not be altered or modified except in a writing signed by you and our authorized officer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we reserve the right to amend this Contract at any time, effective on a prospective basis only. Such amendment will be effective at such time as we display new Contract provisions at our producer extranet website or when we notify you of such changes. Your continuation of the relationship created hereby will be deemed to be your acceptance of such changes. You may request the most current edition of this Contract by calling or writing us.

Except for our right to amend this Contract from time to time as stated above, for purposes of providing notices required or permitted by this Contract or waiving any right under this Contract, and notwithstanding any law recognizing electronic signatures or records, "a writing signed," "in writing" and words of similar meaning, shall mean only a writing in a tangible form bearing an actual "wet" signature in ink manually applied by the person authorized by the respective party.

No forbearance or neglect by us to enforce any term, condition, or provision of this Contract shall be construed as a waiver of any of our rights or privileges hereunder or affect our rights arising from any default or failure of performance by you. You agree that a declaration of invalidity or unenforceability of any particular provision or provisions of this Contract will not in any manner affect any other provision and that you will comply fully with all remaining provisions contained herein.

The provisions of any supplemental addendums, amendments or schedules attached hereto, including the Producer Contract Application signed by you and attached hereto, are incorporated in this Contract in their entirety by this reference, as if fully set forth herein.

This Contract shall be governed by the laws of the State of Iowa, without giving effect to Iowa's conflicts of law principles. The parties agree that the federal courts located in, and the state courts of, Polk County, Iowa, will have jurisdiction and be the appropriate venue for any required judicial interpretation and enforcement of this Contract. As it has been interpreted by the New York Department of Financial Services (DFS) New York's record retention regulation, 11 NYCRR Part 243.2, requires insurers to include a provision in their contracts to the effect that records will be maintained in accordance with New York Insurance Regulation 152. We will need to include this in our contract.

This Contract is executed below and is effective upon the approval of the attached Application for Contract and execution by us.

General Instructions

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following persons must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States:

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code on page 3 and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships above.

What is FATCA reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code on page 3 and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note. ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name as shown on the entity's tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a "disregarded entity." See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2, "Business name/disregarded entity name." If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box in line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box in line 3.

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the name on line 1 is an LLC treated as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes, check the "Limited Liability Company" box and enter "P" in the space provided. If the LLC has filed Form 8832 or 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, check the "Limited Liability Company" box and in the space provided enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If it is a single-member LLC that is a disregarded entity, do not check the "Limited Liability Company" box; instead check the first box in line 3 "Individual/sole proprietor or single-member LLC."

Line 4, Exemptions

If you are exempt from backup withholding and/or FATCA reporting, enter in the appropriate space in line 4 any code(s) that may apply to you.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

Note. You may wish to consult with the financial institution requesting this form to determine whether the FATCA code and/or exempt payee code should be completed.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on this page), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, or 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

- 1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.
- 2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.
- 3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.
- 4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).
- 5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

INSTRUCTIONS

Have you ever wondered what would happen to your commissions from the sale of Athene Annuity and Life Company or Athene Annuity & Life Assurance Company of New York policies that are payable after your death? The short answer is that your renewal income stream would become part of your estate.

This form can assist with settling your future estate matters by allowing you to designate a specific beneficiary (or beneficiaries) for your commissions or by changing a previous designation.

Since commissions may be payable for many years after your death, a specific designation as to who is to receive your future commission income avoids the need to keep your Estate open for a long period of time.

You will want to keep the following points in mind:

- Commissions earned but not paid prior to a person’s date of death are considered “income in respect of a decedent” or IRD by the Internal Revenue Service. IRD refers to those amounts to which a decedent was entitled as gross income, and which would have been included on the decedent’s income tax return, but death intervened before the decedent received the income. This means that if the commissions to be paid the producer while living are includable as income, then those commissions are income to a beneficiary after an producer’s death.
- A beneficiary who receives IRD will pay tax, at the beneficiary tax rate, on that income in the same manner as the decedent would have. Consequently, a beneficiary in a lower tax bracket may benefit more from receiving IRD than a beneficiary in a higher tax brackets.
- The recipient of IRD may be entitled to an income tax deduction for any estate taxes paid by an estate on an IRD item.
- If more than one person receives IRD of the same decedent, each recipient is entitled to only a proportional share of the income tax deduction.
- As with all estate planning issues, you should contact your own tax advisor to review your estate plan to assess the potential impact of designating a beneficiary for your Athene commissions.
