AGENT/BROKER AGREEMENT

BANNER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
FREDERICK, MARYLAND

AGENT/BROKER AGREEMENT

1. APPOINTMENT

Subject to the terms, limitations, and conditions of this Agreement, the Agent/Broker is hereby appointed to solicit applications for such policies as are issued by the Company wherever it is duly licensed. The Agent/Broker hereby accepts such appointment and agrees to comply with all underwriting guidelines, rules, and regulations of the Company. The Agent/Broker shall carry out the purposes of this Agreement only when and where proper licensing has been obtained.

2. RELATIONSHIP

Nothing contained herein shall be construed to create the relationship of employer and employee between the Agent/Broker and the Company or between the Agent/Broker and the Brokerage General Agent. It is the express intent of all the parties that the Agent/Broker is an independent contractor for all purposes and in all situations. The Agent/Broker shall not represent that he/she/it is an employee of the Company or of the Brokerage General Agent, nor shall he/she/it in any manner hold himself/herself/itself out to be an employee of the Company or of the Brokerage General Agent. The Agent/Broker shall be free to exercise independent judgment as to the time, place, and manner of exercising the authority granted under this Agreement.

The Company shall at all times have the right to refuse, decline, or withdraw from consideration any application for insurance submitted by the Agent/Broker. The Company may make changes as it deems advisable in the conduct of its business, or discontinue issuing any of its products or policies at any time. No liability to the Agent/Broker or right of action against the Company or against the Brokerage General Agent shall arise from the Company's exercise of the above rights. The Company shall have the right to selectively test market any of its products or policies at its discretion.

3. INDEMNITY

The Agent/Broker shall indemnify the Company and the above named Brokerage General Agent and hold each of them harmless from any and all expenses, costs, attorneys' fees, causes of action, losses, and damages resulting or arising from unauthorized acts done by the Agent/Broker or his/her/its employees.

4. COMPENSATION

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Company will pay the Agent/Broker commissions on premiums paid in cash to the Company for policies issued upon applications procured under this Agreement in accordance with the current Agent/Broker Compensation addendum, which is to be considered part of this Agreement. Commissions will be paid through the Brokerage General Agent named in this Agreement. The Agent/Broker shall not be entitled to any other compensation, remuneration, or benefits of any nature for services rendered other than the commissions specified in the current Agent/Broker Compensation addendum.

"Premiums paid in cash" shall mean only premiums received and accepted by the Company and duly reported in keeping with the Company's established accounting procedures. A premium paid by a check which is not collected is not a "premium paid in cash". No commissions will be allowed or paid on any premiums waived by the Company for any reason, including those waived under a disability provision or under a payor provision.

The Agent/Broker Compensation Schedule shall be subject to change, on notice in writing to the Brokerage General Agent by the Company, but such change shall not affect any commissions on policies issued upon applications received by the Company prior to the date when such change becomes effective. The Company may fix the rates of compensation on any new plan or plans of insurance developed by the Company.

If the Company shall become liable for the return of any premiums for any cause, including, but not limited to, premiums returned under the Company's rights to contest a claim and to limit benefits when the insured dies by suicide, the Agent/Broker shall repay to the Company on demand the total amount of commissions previously paid to the Agent/Broker on such premiums. The obligation to repay such commissions shall be an indebtedness subject to the indebtedness provision of this Agreement.

For policies on which one or more renewal premiums are paid in advance, commissions shall be payable at the time the premium otherwise would have become due.

No commissions shall be paid on interim term premiums or on flat extra premiums. Any commissions payable on other extra premiums shall be in accordance with rules of the Company at date of issue of the policy for which an extra premium is required

In keeping with Company rules, commissions may be reduced on new policies which are replacements of existing Banner Life policies, or on policies of other companies, or on policies for which the applicant is deemed to have a replacement history.

The Agent/Broker shall be entitled to commissions only on policies which, in the opinion of the Company, were fairly underwritten through the efforts of the Agent/Broker. The Agent/Broker shall not be entitled to any commissions on policies written in violation of any applicable federal or state law or regulation. Where a dispute arises regarding commissions under this Agreement, the decision of the Company shall be binding.

5. INDEBTEDNESS

The Company shall have the right to offset any commissions due, or which may become due the Agent/Broker, against any debts now due, or which may become due from the Agent/Broker to the Company. Such indebtedness shall be a first lien against said commissions. The Agent/Broker shall pay any attorney's fees or other collection cost which the Company may incur in connection with any amounts due to the Company under this Agreement.

6. PRIVACY POLICY

The Agent/Broker shall comply with the rules and policies of the company with regard to maintaining the privacy of all non-public, personal information of applicants, customers, policyowners, and beneficiaries. In addition, the Agent/Broker shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations with regard to maintaining the privacy of all non-public, personal information of applicants, customers policy owners and beneficiaries.

The Agent/Broker agrees and acknowledges that it shall be the responsibility of the Agent/Broker to distribute a copy of the Company's Privacy Policy to the applicant at the time of application and to the policyowner at the time of delivery of the policy.

7. LIMITATIONS OF AUTHORITY

The Agent/Broker shall have no authority to, nor shall he/she/it do any of the following:

- A. Make, waive, discharge or change any term, rate or condition stated in any Company policy, Agreement, or approved form; or
- B. Waive a forfeiture; or
- C. Extend the time for payment of premiums or other monies due the Company; or
- D. Collect money for the Company, except initial premiums and then only in strict compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and of the receipts, policies, or Agreements issued by the Company; or
- E. Bring or defend any legal proceeding in connection with any matter pertaining to the Company's business; or
- F. Offer to pay, directly or indirectly, any rebate of premiums or any other inducement not specified in the policy to any person, except as permitted by the law of the state having jurisdiction over the policy; or
- G. Misrepresent or compare incompletely for the purpose of inducing a policyholder in this Company or in any other company to lapse, forfeit, or surrender insurance; or

H. Transact business in contravention of the laws and regulations of any insurance department and/or governmental authorities having jurisdiction of all subject matters embraced within this Agreement.

8. ADVERTISING

The Agent/Broker shall comply with the rules of the Company with regard to the use of all advertising matter. The Agent/Broker shall not use, permit, or cause to be used, the name of the Company or any advertising regarding its products in any form of publication or other media without obtaining the prior written authorization of the Company. Nothing in the authorization shall be construed to make the Company liable for the cost of such advertising.

9. ASSIGNMENT

No assignment of this Agreement or any commissions hereunder shall be valid unless authorized in advance, in writing, by the Company. Every assignment shall be subject to and subordinate to any indebtedness and obligation of the Agent/Broker to the Company that may be due or become due.

10. PREMIUMS

The Agent/Broker shall collect only the initial premium on applications or insurance policies solicited under the terms of this Agreement, and shall be responsible for all such monies. Such monies shall be collected only by check or other instrument made payable to the Company. The Agent/Broker is not authorized to receive premiums payable to his/her/its personal order. The Agent/Broker shall not collect premiums in currency or coin unless specifically authorized by a Company Officer for a particular transaction. All premium funds received for or on behalf of the Company shall be segregated and held by the Agent/Broker as a fiduciary. Premium funds shall not be used by the Agent/Broker for any purpose whatsoever, but shall be transmitted to the Company immediately following their receipt.

11. DELIVERY OF POLICIES

No policy shall be delivered unless at the time of delivery the applicant is in the state of health and insurability represented in Parts I and II of the application and any supplements thereto, the first premium has been fully paid, and delivery has been made on or prior to the delivery expiration date. The Agent/Broker shall return to the Company, on the day following the expiration of the delivery period, any policy not so delivered, unless a specific extension of the delivery period has been authorized. If the applicant is not in the state of health and insurability represented in the application when delivery is attempted, the policy shall not be delivered, but shall immediately be returned to the Company with a full written explanation.

12. TERMINATION

This Agreement may be terminated at will, with or without cause, by any party giving to the other parties thirty (30) days notice in writing. If the Agent/Broker breaches this Agreement, violates any insurance laws resulting in the suspension or revocation of his/her/its license, or incurs other disciplinary action by the appropriate regulatory authorities, is unable to obtain renewal of a necessary state license, becomes bankrupt, undergoes dissolution of a corporate or partnership form, dies, or the Brokerage General Agent is terminated, the Company may, at its sole discretion, terminate this Agreement without notice as of the date any one or more of these circumstances occur.

If this Agreement terminates by reason of death, the Company shall pay commissions due, or thereafter becoming due, to the Agent's/Broker's estate, or to a duly authorized Executor/Executrix or Administrator.

If the Agent/Broker is a corporation, or subsequently incorporates and assigns this Agreement to such corporation, this Agreement shall automatically terminate in the event the Corporation ceases to do business as a corporation. All commissions due and thereafter becoming due, shall be payable to its successor or duly appointed representative.

13. VESTING

First year commissions and renewal commissions from the second through the tenth year payable under this Agreement shall be vested, subject to the following:

If at any time prior to or subsequent to termination of this Agreement the Agent/Broker shall do or commit any of the following acts, no commissions shall be thereafter payable to the Agent/Broker, any provision of this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding:

- A. Withholding or misappropriation for his/her/its own use or for the benefit of others, funds of the Company or its policyowners or applicants.
- B. Fraud, malfeasance, or non-feasance in the performance of any duties imposed on the Agent/Broker under the terms of this Agreement.
- C. Inducing or attempting to induce agents of the Company to leave its service or its policyowners to relinquish their policies.

14. WAIVER

No waiver or modification of this Agreement shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by a duly authorized Company Officer. The failure of the Company to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver by the Company of that provision. The past waiver of a provision by the Company shall not constitute a course of conduct or a waiver of that provision in the future.

15. SUPPLIES

All forms, manuals, and other Company supplies furnished to the Agent/Broker by the Company shall remain the property of the Company at all times, and shall be returned to the Company or its representatives promptly upon demand. If this Agreement is terminated or the return of the Company property is otherwise requested, no further commissions shall be payable to the Agent/Broker until the property has been returned.

16. CHOICE OF LAWS

The laws of the State of Maryland shall govern all matters concerning the validity, performance and interpretation of this Agreement.

17. APPASSIST MARKET SIGNATURE AUTHORIZATION

The Agent/Broker authorizes the Company and its representatives to indicate receipt of the Agent/Broker signature (in either original, facsimile or electronic format) and/or to affix a facsimile of the Agent/Broker signature indicated on the AB-30 Adoption Authorization form on all life insurance applications and related forms processed on behalf of the Agent/Broker by the Company. The Agent/Broker hereby represents the signature to be that of the Agent/Broker, an authorized officer or principal who is licensed to conduct life insurance transactions in jurisdictions in which the Agent/Broker operates. The Agent/Broker hereby acknowledges its obligation to immediately notify the Company should the authorization for use of this signature be terminated or revoked in any jurisdiction.

18. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement renders void all previous Agreements, whether oral or in writing, between the Company, the Brokerage General Agent, and Agent/Broker. This Agreement, together with the current Agent/Broker Compensation Schedule and any amendments attached hereto now or in the future, constitute the entire Agreement among the Company, the Brokerage General Agent, and the Agent/Broker. The authority of the Agent/Broker shall extend no further than that which is stated in this Agreement.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Employer identification number

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a “saving clause.” Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called “backup withholding.” Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the “Name” line. You may enter your business, trade, or “doing business as (DBA)” name on the “Business name/disregarded entity name” line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the “Name” line and any business, trade, or “doing business as (DBA) name” on the “Business name/disregarded entity name” line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the “Name” line. The name of the entity entered on the “Name” line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the “Name” line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the “Name” line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the “Business name/disregarded entity name” line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the “Name” line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the “Name” line is an LLC, check the “Limited liability company” box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter “P” for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter “C” for C corporation or “S” for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the “Name” line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the “Name” line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),
 2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,
 3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,
 4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or
 5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.
- Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:
6. A corporation,
 7. A foreign central bank of issue,
 8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,
 9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,
 10. A real estate investment trust,
 11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,
 12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),
 13. A financial institution,
 14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or
 15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 5 and 7 through 13. Also, C corporations.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 ²

² However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

¹ List first and circle the name of the person whose number you furnish. If only one person on a joint account has an SSN, that person's number must be furnished.

³ You must show your individual name and you may also enter your business or "DBA" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity" name line. You may use either your SSN or EIN (if you have one), but the IRS encourages you to use your SSN.

⁴ List first and circle the name of the trust, estate, or pension trust. (Do not furnish the TIN of the personal representative or trustee unless the legal entity itself is not designated in the account title.) Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

*Note. Grantor also must provide a Form W-9 to trustee of trust.

Note. If no name is circled when more than one name is listed, the number will be considered to be that of the first name listed.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.
